THE WARNING DREAMS

BY PERRY STONE

EARLY FRIDAY MORNING, the weekend of Thanksgiving, long before sunrise, I went in and out of sleep having a very detailed series of dreams, each exposing a different layer of a strategy being set by the kingdom of darkness that was being orchestrated by a select group of witches. After almost three hours of waking, hearing, and seeing a plan being discussed then enacted, I had considered immediately posting the details on social media, or even on our YouTube Channel, but received a strong check in my spirit to instead write what I heard and saw in this V.O.E., as our audience is more mature and would perceive the dream's interpretation and take it more seriously.

The dream began in a room with tables, where perhaps ten females, most appearing between their thirties to fifties, were gathered together in a called meeting to discuss a new strategy to disrupt churches and ministries throughout the United States. I discerned that these women were all noted witches that appeared to be part of a larger movement of leaders in the realm of darkness that make decisions that would be passed on to be enacted by small groups of witches throughout states in the United States.

It was as though I was invisibly present to overhear their entire strategy. This particular group was concerned about the Gospel making strong inroads in the western part of the United States. They knew the American population was basically frustrated and looking for some hope from a “higher power.” This group’s plan was to initiate confusion, distractions, and hindrances to stop the flow of the Gospel through churches and ministers, who could impact certain regions. This group had selected Nevada as a headquarters, as it was a place where much of the “region” could be accessed from one center and was located in a strategic region of the nation. It was also less likely to be detected and exposed as so many new people were arriving in the state.

I awoke and began to go in and out of sleep into another phase of the plan, almost as though I was watching a movie with parts I, II, III, and so forth. These women began discussing how there would be witches posing as intercessors to infiltrate prayer meetings in large churches to create static interference in the spirit realm. These would include the releasing of various types of spirits of infirmity (sickness) and hindering spirits with the assignments of causing or creating church division, all to prevent a unified prayer front within the church. It was a “take-out-a-prayer-soldier-one-at-a-time” strategy. Their hopes were that people who were great prayer warriors would drop out and wane in interest, thus weakening the ministry. Once prayer efforts were weakened, family division, church division, and ministry staff division would, according to what they believed, begin. Their greatest fear seemed to be that they would be exposed, only strengthening and motivating a prayer ministry and strong intercessors into a battle mode. What came to my mind was almost like an anointed Elijah. He rose up against the 850 false prophets of Baal on Mount Carmel and calling fire down.

I then awoke and could sense my spirit again stirring, until I fell asleep a third time, and I found myself in another place. I observed how the demonic world was activated through the incantations and counterfeit fasting these witches conducted on a consistent basis. These groups, for three straight years (in October), led thousands in speaking curses over President Trump as was reported in major media sites. This third plot was the strangest and yet was one of the most chilling parts that must be exposed.

This group was so high in their positions and in their associations with leaders and others in the crime and drug industry that they had “contacts” throughout the states and in other states on the East Coast. Their plot includes uniting with drug dealers and drug lords in an attempt to plant false information on ministers in their own community as to some secret addiction they are battling, including falsely planting drugs! A set team would begin rumors and alleged reports to the press, claiming to have evidence. I saw and heard the details, and this is their plan! They believed that just news reports and rumors would be believed by weak Christians, and the self-destruction of a church and ministry would occur.

Here is perhaps the strangest part of this satanic operation. There are many men and women in churches across America who were once themselves drug pushers and dealers of various levels. There is a very strong demonic spirit that is linked to this lifestyle. Beware, lest the spirit you once dealt with will return with seven other spirits more wicked, and you find yourself being used for evil and not good.

Here is what I believe the Lord would have you all to know.

1. If you are a minister, including a pastor, evangelist, or a church staff member, be on guard and stay close to your trusted staff where no one can make up or create some false charge against you. Our properties use numerous indoor and outdoor cameras, taping all activity, and in my main office, there are four security points that only me, Pam, and three men on staff have access to. This level may not be possible for everyone. However, in our culture today and with such satanic strategies, you must organize a hedge of protection.

2. Be cautious when fellowshiping or hanging out with people you are unfamiliar with. When you do not know a person or a couple very well, be sure if you are a man that you have at least one or two men (or trained security persons) with or near you, or talk where there is video evidence. Often in our care for people, we trust to easy and let down our guard, which can be a fatal mistake.

3. Be certain that you vet and know well those placed in positions of intercession and prayer. Some individuals could become opportunists who are seeking out a following of their own. As the leader, stay in charge and let the sheep know they are to be united around the vision. Any vision disrupter must be warned and removed if needed. Intercession is not a game. It is a life-imparting-power source.

4. There is no need for a curse-free, blood-washed, sin-free believer to feel intimidated by people who worship the false god of this world system and whose greatest power is intimidation and fear. The only way, and I repeat, the only way that the adversary ever gets into a door is one in which a crack already exists or one in which we open ourselves.

This is one reason why we are to “know those who labor among us” and to “know them by their fruit.” ●

For centuries, scholars have debated the meaning of Genesis 3:15, the “seed of the serpent.” On this audio CD, Perry explores what the seed of the serpent actually is, teaching you the amazing link between the severed head of Goliath, the giant from Gath, and the mystery of Golgotha, the hill where Christ was crucified. This became a “classic” message as far back as 2006, when it was first preached in Dalton, GA.
