a. Upgrade with Miles (Miles & More Program)

If you are a member of Lufthansa's Miles & More program, you can use your miles to upgrade your existing booking. Upgrades can be done:

b. Last-Minute Paid Upgrades

If you're not a frequent flyer or short on miles, Lufthansa often offers paid last-minute seat upgrades at discounted rates. These offers are available:

- During online check-in (within 24 hours of departure).
- At airport self-service kiosks or check-in counters.
- Occasionally at the boarding gate if seats are still open.

Step 1: Visit the Check-in Counter

Politely ask the Lufthansa agent if any Business Class seats are available for an upgrade. Sometimes, there are unsold seats, and the airline offers reduced upgrade rates to fill them.

Step 2: Use a Lounge or Kiosk

Frequent flyers or premium members can access airport lounges, where staff can check for upgrade options. Alternatively, use Lufthansa's self-service kiosks, which may display special last-minute upgrade deals.

Step 3: Ask at the Gate

If you couldn't secure an upgrade earlier, try once more at the boarding gate. Gate agents can occasionally offer same-day upgrades to fill remaining Business Class seats.
